

INTERVIEWS: SPOOKY NIGHTS '98

Candidate no.	Previous Wizzard experience	Chequered past / misdemeanours / crimes	Requested role / area of park	Observations / notes
1	1995 - '97: 3 summers, 1 Spooky season, 3 winters at Mockery. '98: Claytonville summer.	Robbery. Did time in HMP Burnley.	Security.	Big, muscly. His presence would act as a deterrent if he worked security... but he has a temper. Deny request. Did good work as Cowboy Crackles mascot this summer. Give him something similar.
2	1995 – '98: 4 summers, 4 winters, 4 Spooky seasons at Mockery.	Driving without a license.	Scare actor team leader.	A pain in the arse. Complains endlessly. Deny request. But... she's young. I was a pain in the arse once. And she's obsessed with rollercoasters. Wants a future in theme parks. Surely that can be harnessed? Put her with a capable TL.
3	1995 – '98: 4 summers, 3 winters at Mockery.	No	Anywhere.	Smart, reliable. Good with difficult personalities and placating park guests. TL? Conductor? Could handle extra responsibility.
4	1989: 1 summer at Mockery '94: 1 winter season '97, '98: 2 summers at Claytonville	Trespassing (in Mockery woods!)	DJ or Scare Actor	Wants a “sexy” role “to impress the ladies” !!!! Keep him away from guests and other staff. Gossipy. Vindictive. Obsessive. Spreads rumours. Stirs the pot. Needs a short leash. Get R to keep an eye on him.
5	1994 – '98: Summer parade master at Mockery. Spooky Nights ents dir. Winter pageant director. '96: choreographed Cowboys on Ice at Claytonville.	Am. dram.	Same as before but with “greater creative control” and the power to fire actors (!)	Do NOT give him greater control. He lost that privilege when he debuted arseless chaps at a family ice show. And absolutely NO firing privileges. Man's a dictator-in-waiting. If he creates excess paper work for me again this season, DO NOT RENEW HIS CONTRACT.
6	Worked for Mockery from the age of 16.	Fencing stolen goods. Did time in HMP B. No apparent resentment against Mockery.	Anywhere.	Trustworthy. Compassionate. Discreet. Stoic. Carries a heavy burden of guilt and shame. Ready for leadership. Give him a team (and a dormitory) with 'problem' staff members. Ask him to keep tabs on them.
